PSP TRIVIA BOWL

Welcome to the PSP Trivia Bowl! This is your opportunity to learn interesting information about important subjects and topics in a fun and entertaining way. Since we are all in this pandemic together, it is important to keep on learning new things about different topics and subjects whenever possible.

In this activity, elementary/middle school and high school students have the opportunity to test their general knowledge in subjects like math, science, social studies and English.

Submit your answers using the QR Code or website listed below. Only submit answers for your grade level. Two students (one middle school and one high school student) will have their name drawn for the weekly prize!

Answers are due Saturday, May 2, 2020
